

ATTENTION: Editor for Arts/Events Calendar

For Immediate Release: June 1, 2022 For further information, contact:
Emily Chesick: 651-399-7073 or Tracy McMan: 651-238-9187

Digital images of work by the featured artists are available at:
<http://www.artistscircle.org/> (under Publicity Info, click Press Kit)

ART AT ST. KATE'S

the exciting 13th annual ART FAIR of local artists presented by Artists' Circle, Textile Center and St. Catherine University

(Held on the grounds of St. Catherine University in Saint Paul)

Saturday, July 9, 2022

Art at St. Kate's, a juried art fair of quality fine crafts and fine art, is produced by Artists' Circle, a Minnesota non-profit art organization promoting fine crafts since 1997, and Textile Center, a national center for fiber arts in Minneapolis.

Art at St. Kate's is one of the finest one-day outdoor art fairs in Saint Paul. It is located on the beautiful triangular green space at Cleveland and Randolph Avenues on the Saint Paul campus of St. Catherine University. The show is organized and run by artists for artists. The art fair showcases 90 local fine art and fine craft artists from the upper Midwest.

Check out: <http://www.artistscircle.org/>

Saturday, July 9, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. Free event. Free parking.

Art at St. Kate's is proud to be part of the ever-growing movement to Buy Local.

Art at St. Kate's features quality work by 90 juried artists who create and sell fine crafts including clay, fiber, glass, leather, jewelry (gold, silver, stone, beaded), metal, paper, wood, mixed media, as well as fine arts including painting, photography, printmaking, and sculpture. This art fair has everything from leather handbags, cloisonné pendants, and stained glass to hand-woven scarves, wood and copper birdhouses, woodcut prints, acrylic and oil paintings, collages, original cards, metal sculptures, quilts, hand-blown glass, hand-made paper, pottery tiles, vases, plates, teapots, and mugs. Strolling musicians and food trucks are also part of the art fair.

Our five featured artists include some of the upper Midwest best known: Edward Lefto, mixed media, Minneapolis; Sue and Chris Holmquist, clay, Northfield; Mariella Terbeest-Schladweiler, fiber, Preston; Emily Gray Koehler, printmaking, Minneapolis; and Kim Crocker, jewelry, New Prague.

Art at St. Kate's provides artists with a beautiful site not only to market their original art works, but also to interact with the appreciative and knowledgeable public for which the Twin Cities is well known.